HONOLULU, April 21, 1896.
 Mr. C. W. MACFARLANE:—It affords me pleasure to recommend, to any one whose hair is falling out, the use of DR. POTTIE'S HAIR OIL. My hair was coming out at such a rate as led me to believe that I would soon become bald. After using the oil for five weeks this ceased entirely; none whatever is now falling out. I consider it the best and only worthy remedy for this trouble and also recommend it as a stimulant to new growth.
 Yours truly,
 J. B. DANIELS.

How to Make It Made.

Landscapes, portraits and figures of all kinds are represented by very small pieces of glass or stone of different colors. They are often so small that more than 2,000 pieces will be put in a square inch.

Each of these has to be selected so as to be of the right color and put in exactly the right place and cemented there. Some of them are so fine that it must have taken a man months to do a single square inch.

In the British museum is the finest specimen of these. It is less than half an inch square and represents the sacred hawk of the Egyptians, every feather of the bird's wing being produced with a great number of colors and tints, each quite distinct and so minute that a strong magnifying glass is require to distinguish details.

How to Improve the Carriage.

An erect and graceful carriage is always a great charm in a woman. A stooping, slouching gait is ugly, and it is always advisable for young girls to have physical training and be taught how to carry themselves. Exercises which tend to develop grace of body and motion should be practiced daily, and it is as well to remember that the body needs as much training as the mind.

How to Make Toasted Cheese With Eggs.

Beat 3 tablespoonfuls of bread crumbs soaked in milk with 2 eggs, then add 2 teaspoonfuls of made mustard, salt and pepper to taste and, lastly, half a pound of grated cheese. Beat all together lightly, spread evenly on slices of toast and place in the oven to brown quickly. Before sending to table strew a little dry grated cheese over.

Woman's Neckwear.

The stock collar comes now in all the colors of the rainbow and in three distinct styles. First, there is the plain stock tied in little, stiff, narrow bows; second, there is the stock tied in soft, wide bows, and, last and newest, is the four-in-hand, which will be found useful in many instances, as it covers quite an expanse of shirt waist. Plaid silks are used in the making of these stock collars as well as plain silks and satins. Narrow linen collars, made especially to wear with the stocks, turn over the edge. More dressy are the linen lawn collars edged with narrow lace.

Hard For the Dog.

"That dog's mine!"
 "No, 'tain't; it's mine!"

"Let go of him!"
 "No, I won't; let go of him yourself!"

"Great Scott! Look at him now!"—

If you are interested in the subject of enlarged portraits, it would be worth your while to see the samples at King Bros. at prices ranging from $5.00 to $10.00 frames and all. They can't be beat.

Before giving your order for a portrait, see what King Bros. have to show in crayon enlargements and judge for yourself whether they can give you the best value for your money or not.

Printed ducks are just as good, if not better than anything else for boys' shirt waists. They wash and wear well, two very important considerations. Kerr has them in a large variety of patterns at eight yards for one dollar.

Our work is better and our prices are lower for enlarged portrait work than anyone else's. We are not making much at it, but don't let that worry you. If you have anything in this line to be done see our samples first, and you won't regret it. King Bros., 110 Hotel street.
